TESTIMONIALS

The bus meditation is soooooo precious. I did it during our very long current this morning and had such a great CELEBRATION. The bus was just not big enough to even house our loved ones, who responded to come rather curious on what wonderful adventure I/we (Klaus included) would take them. It was so good to see parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, who have long passed once again, as well as our children with spouses and grandchildren They were so happy to join us on this trip to somewhere here in Brazil. The group of people from whom we have learned profound things over the years was huge. We'll have to charter an even bigger bus for all of them and celebrate with them. There were not many for the back seats. It all seemed one big celebrating, joyful crowd. Those who caused some problems in former times seemed so happy to be invited and part of this exciting trip. Everyone was full of anticipation to be on board, ready for the adventure trip into the unknown where joy and happiness, gratitude , and celebrating life, being alive now seemed to be the guiding star.

Thanks for the treasure Jon. Trust, we will do this meditation again and also with those ready for it. Much appreciation and thanks for sharing it with us.

God loves YOU and so do we. You will be in our thoughts and prayers even when back in California and on our trips to Europe next year.

1. A lady, after being explained this practice explained to me that when she had done this the previous night she placed her mother on the bus who had passed when she was very young. Her father had left when she was born. When her mother was placed on the bus and she had followed the steps she saw her father there as well, embracing her mother. This brought so much emotion to her as it is to me right now...God Bless Her for that - thank you
2. A lady said to me, I have no idea where to put my father on the bus. He abused me as a child, I have real issues with him. I said it's your bus, you will work it out. The next day I was having dinner when she came to me, and she said I could not even move the bus because my father was standing in front of the bus, when I opened the doors he came on. We looked at each other and he was so filled with remorse and regret, we just hugged each other and cried, and now he sits at the front of the bus.
3. A lady after this practice was explained, she said Oh great, I will do this in my meditation at the Casa. I said, perfect. She came and found me after the current session at the Casa which is approximately five or ten minutes after it had finished and said to me, "I did you bus, and I couldn't even get to halfway". The current was four and half hours.

THE BUS NEVER ENDS, IT'S ONGOING AS WE MEET PEOPLE EVERY SINGLE DAY AND EVERY SINGLE MOMENT

4, A lady that this practice was explained to said I will put my sister on the front of the bus. She came back to me at lunchtime and said, I could not even embrace my sister...what am I suppose to do now, "I said, keep doing it because there is nothing, nothing that can reject an act of LOVE. She said, she was going back to her country in two days and said maybe I will do it on the plane, I said, it's your bus, it's your sister, it's your family.

She came back to me in two months and came straight to me, I was having lunch, and she said my sister picked me up at the airport, neither of us said anything and we went to each other and embraced and cried and now she sits at the front of my bus.

WHAT WE FEEL IS NOT NECESSARILY WHAT THE OTHER ONE FEELS, this was so evident in what she explained to me.

5. One man related a story at the prayer gathering on Sunday morning. A situation was explained through many tears and emotion that as he walked out of his door, he saw two butterflies on the ground, being a lover of animals he put his hand down to attract the butterflies. One flew and one jumped on his hand. Through the tears and emotion there was a huge heart opening. Later that day, while praying with some other people, I passed this individual and said "Have you given the butterfly a name yet" he jokingly snickered. I said, "everything is energy, give it a name". I went and prayed with someone else and when I came back he said to me, " I gave it a name, and it flew away, I gave it the name of Fritz and then it flew away". When he told me that he said "I haven't thought about Fritz in 42 years, he was my brother who passed at birth", and we both cried and then prayed for the evolution in the spiritual world.

6. The 5th time I did this in the current room at the Casa, while I was in meditation, the Entities placed a person in my concentration, & I said I have not even thought about in 20 years. Straight away I received an intuition, that he was requiring prayers, & to place him on the bus.

From all testimonials listed & what I have myself experienced, it is a true "HEALING" for all concerned, & a transformation for the new level of consciousness which is eminent for all.

Blessings of Love always & in all ways,
Jon
